Certificate Course in Modi Script

Introduction

Modi was one of the most important scripts of medieval Maharashtra. Earlier in Maharashtra documents regarding land revenue, judicial, Justice, Donation of land (Dan-Patra), Religious matters, property matter, Jahangir, Watan, Farman etc. were written in Modi. Research of these medieval documents is not possible without having proper knowledge of Modi script. So that department of history Conducted guest lecture on Modi Script.

As we know MODI Script was developed in Devagiri in the 12th century. It went on to be used as the written script for Marathi, which is an Indo-Aryan language spoken in the Maharashtra state of India, until the 20th century. Apart from Marathi, languages like Hindi, Konkani, Kannada, Urdu, Gujarati, Rajasthani, and Tamil MODI script used for writing. MODI script is developed based on Brahmi script and is derived from Nagari family of scripts. It was intended for fast and easy writing. Most of the old literature states that Hemadri Pandit, also known as Hemadpant, introduced MODI Script. He was inspired by the cursive Sinhalese script and was instrumental in developing a similar one for Marathi, which involves less lifting of hand while writing and could be written very fast. Another popular theory depicts Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj, who is the founder of the Maratha Dynasty, as the major contributor to the introduction of the script and Balaji Avaji, his secretary, was a key player in the creation of the MODI script.
