Born in family of poor economic condition. He had 3 brothers. He had the Responsibility of his family somehow in very critical condition he became lawyer & then student hard about laws & rules. Then he became a politician but initially he was local politician but initially he was local politician. He too part in very movement such as ban on liquor. Injustice about women. He was inspired by politician like 'mahatma Gandhi' & took part in all of movement held by Gandhiji. In between this he was imprisoned by Britishers. But due to inspiration of mahatma Gandhi he still fought against the British after the primary education he went to London for the father studies of law. He has done lot of movement & sacrifices for peasant community and he raised his voice against British community/communities. After that he was being popular among all due to all of leadership peasants gave him the past & title as sardar. Then after independence he took place the important movement of integrity and was well known by the title as sardar Vallabhbhai Patel- Iron man of India
